

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

IN RE ALPHABET, INC., SHAREHOLDER
DERIVATIVE LITIGATION

Case No. 21-cv-09388-RFL

ORDER REQUESTING SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEFING

Re: Dkt. No. 107

The Court has reviewed Plaintiffs' unopposed Motion for Approval of Attorneys' Fee Application. (Dkt. No. 107.) Plaintiffs are ordered, by September 25, 2025, to provide a breakdown of Plaintiffs' counsel's hours worked in the following categories:

1. Review and analysis of documents from other lawsuits (including trial transcripts, exhibits, documents produced, pleadings, court decisions, news or commentary regarding lawsuit, etc.) or attending trials or hearings in other lawsuits;
2. Counsel's books and records investigation pursuant to 8 Del. C. §220, including review of the produced records;
3. Review and analysis of industry news or regulatory actions not associated with any specific lawsuit;
4. Review and analysis of documents from any other sources;
5. Preparation of the Complaint (exclusive of any document review);
6. General case strategy and research (exclusive of any document review);
7. Preparation of mediation statement, attendance at mediation and associated meetings/correspondence/research, and negotiation and preparation of settlement agreement (exclusive of any document review); and
8. Preparation of the approval motions (exclusive of any document review).

The breakdown may be in the form of a summary chart, but should be supported by a sworn declaration of the individual who prepared it.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: September 17, 2025

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Rita F. Lin', is written over a horizontal line.

RITA F. LIN
United States District Judge